Help Lakewold Gardens Win $5,000 Toward Our Mission

Lakewood, WA – Lakewold Gardens has an opportunity to win a $5,000 prize, but to do so it involves you! To win this giveaway Lakewold needs to receive more reviews than other nonprofits and organizations competing. Now through February 28, 2011, please write a review about Lakewold on GuideStar's website and share your love of the gardens. The site is <http://www2.guidestar.org/organizations/94-3041320/friends-lakewold.aspx>. Also, check out Lakewold's profile and see what others are saying about this local community treasure.

GuideStar USA, Inc., the leading source of nonprofit information, and KIMBIA, a group that empowers nonprofits and other organizations to increase giving, are making this funding available through their Winter 2011 GuideStar KIMBIA Nonprofit Giveaway. This generous gift would help Lakewold preserve and maintain this beautiful community asset.

"We know we are incredibly fortunate to have a passionate and committed constituency," said Executive Director Stephanie Walsh. "If every supporter would take the time to write a review, we know we could be a contender for the GuideStar-KIMBIA Nonprofit Giveaway and could do great things with the prize money."

Reviews will show Lakewold's donors and other stakeholders that the gardens are making an impact on the community and working effectively towards its mission. Anyone with firsthand knowledge about us who is not a paid employee of Lakewold Gardens can write a review on GuideStar. Your review will appear on Lakewold's profile on both GuideStar and Great Nonprofits, GuideStar's partner that makes it possible to write and post reviews. There is no charge for writing a review, but you are limited to posting only one review for your organization.
